

Sermon Reflection Worksheet

Sunday, August 15, 2010

We offer this worksheet as an aid to help you personally reflect on the Sunday scriptures. Please write down your thoughts or save this to share for discussion with family or friends.

Zechariah 8: 1-5

Luke 7: 31-35

Getting Into the Text

Who is the 'I' in the Zechariah passage making this promise?

- God Zechariah Noah Paul

In an example of 'parallelism' in Hebrew writing, Zion is a synonym for:

- God Jerusalem Jealousy Wrath

How can the word 'jealousy' be meant in a positive way?

When the Lord returns to Zion and dwells in Jerusalem, what two things will happen to Jerusalem?

- 1.
- 2.

When those two things happen, what are the two signs that the age of salvation has arrived?

1. Old men and old women will _____
2. The streets of the city shall be _____

Getting Something Out of the Text

Which toys might Jesus have played with when a boy?

What games best will increase our children's imagination and self-regulation?

My take home message is: